NOTES:

Anxiety Relief Through Journalling

Prompt: What does living authentically mean to you, and how might accepting your true self help ease anxiety you feel in daily life?

Prompt: When you feel overwhelmed by anxiety, what deeper questions about your life and its purpose arise, and how might exploring these bring you closer to peace?

Prompt: Imagine you could let go of one fear that holds you back – what would it be, and how might this freedom allow you to create a more meaningful life?

Prompt: If you were to accept that uncertainty is a natural part of life, how might this perspective shift the way you approach your anxiety?
