

Amber Healing Counselling – Cookies Policy

Introduction

This policy explains how our website uses cookies to ensure it functions correctly. By continuing to use this website, you agree to our use of cookies as described below.

Essential Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the website to function and cannot be switched off. They do not store any personally identifiable information. Essential cookies on this website may include:

- Session cookies that keep you logged in while browsing
- Security cookies that help protect against fraudulent activity
- Cookies that remember your cookie preferences

No consent is required for these cookies as they are strictly necessary for the website to operate.

Statistical, Analytics, and Advertising Cookies

- Statistical and Analytics Cookies: We do not currently use analytics or statistical cookies on this website.
- Advertising and Tracking Cookies: We do not use any advertising or tracking cookies on this website.
- Cookie Consent Tool: As we do not use cookies that require consent under UK GDPR and the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations (PECR), a consent tool is not necessary currently.

Third-Party Cookies

Cookies may be set by third-party services that we use to run this website:

- WordPress: This website runs on WordPress. WordPress and any installed plugins may set cookies to enable the website to function correctly. These typically include session cookies and security cookies. WordPress is provided by Automatic Inc (USA). Where data is transferred to the USA, appropriate safeguards such as Standard Contractual Clauses are in place.
- WebHealer: This website is built using WebHealer. WebHealer may set technical cookies to enable website functionality and may collect basic technical data about visitors. WebHealer Ltd is based in the UK.

I do not control the cookies set by these third parties. You can find more information about their cookie practices in their respective privacy policies.

How to Manage or Opt Out of Cookies

You can control and delete cookies through your browser settings. Most browsers allow you to see what cookies are stored, delete them individually, block third-party cookies, block all cookies from specific sites, or delete all cookies when you close your browser. Please note that blocking all cookies may affect how this website functions.
